

THE THIRD
OR 1820
LAND LOTTERY
OF GEORGIA

THE 1820 LOTTERY

Contrary to an erroneous opinion held by many genealogists, all of Georgia's six Land Lotteries were NOT held for the purpose of granting land to Revolutionary veterans. The 1805, the 1807 and the 1821 Land Lotteries did not even mention military veterans. Only the 1820, 1827 and 1832 Lotteries gave any special consideration to veterans of wars. This Lottery, the 1820, then, is the first of the six which did recognize Revolutionary Soldiers, but only if they were invalid or indigent. Those who had had a fortunate draw, as a citizen of Georgia, in the previous 1805 and 1807 Lotteries, were entitled to one extra draw in this one. If they had not had an extra draw, they were entitled to two extra draws in the 1820 Land Lottery. These extra draws were in addition to those which they might receive as ordinary citizens, and the ordinary citizen was still the main concern in this, as well as all of the Lotteries.

The area which comprised the original counties in this Lottery, was the largest cession of land yet gained by Georgia. The north half of Gwinnett County, and the counties of Hall, Rabun and Habersham were ceded by the Cherokee Nation, but the southern half of Gwinnett, all of Walton, Early, Irwin and Appling Counties were ceded by the Creeks.

One will notice that the letters "R.S." or "Rev. Sol." are listed after the name of the Revolutionary veterans here. That notation IS ALL THAT IS SHOWN IN THE GRANT TO THAT PERSON. Other names show a "sol." and, of course, this means soldier, but the Surveyor General Department does not have any information which can tell you in which war the soldier had fought.

One must also bear in mind, that with the exception of the first, or 1805 Land Lottery, the State of Georgia did NOT keep the list of those persons ENTITLED to draw. Some counties do have such lists and in some county histories these lists have been printed. If you do not see the name you seek in this Lottery, but have seen it elsewhere in lists of those ENTITLED to draw, it simply means that the person drew a blank ticket and received no land.

Please remember also, that those persons who registered to draw in their counties of residence, had to take only an ORAL oath as to their eligibility. Therefore, the Georgia Surveyor General Department has no applications or other written records as to what the registrant may have said about himself, his family, birthplace, age or military service. Copies of grants, and this will be a xerox copy, may be had for one dollar. Write to and make your check payable to the Georgia Surveyor General Department, 330 Capitol Avenue, S. E., Atlanta, Georgia 30334.
